

SONOMA BUSINESS MEN PROTEST S. P. SERVICE

Join With Santa Rosa In Appeal For Former Schedule of Trains or Improvement of One Now In Effect.

The Sonoma Business Men's Association at its meeting last Monday night joined in the protest voiced by Santa Rosa organizations against the new train service of the Southern Pacific railroad company which after twenty years of two trains a day, has cut its service down to a single trip from San Francisco in the morning and one train a day from Santa Rosa in the afternoon.

Calistoga up in arms against similar treatment there, appealed to the Company and to the Railroad Commission with the result that the order curtailing the service to Calistoga was rescinded.

Sonoma and Santa Rosa feel that they are entitled to equal consideration.

The result of the change has hit the mail service hard and is a great inconvenience. The Business Men of Sonoma asked that the morning trip from Santa Rosa south be restored, and the evening train from San Francisco resumed. This change would be better for post office patrons.

R. B. Houston of the company was in town last week and on all sides heard the buzz of dissatisfaction at the new schedule in Sonoma Valley.

TAKEN TO UKIAH

Salvatore Caccinella, who made a vicious attack upon his brother, and was adjudged insane by the county lunacy board, was taken to Ukiah state hospital Friday by Deputy Sheriff Robinson.

AUTO DRIVER RUNS AMUCK AND IS ARRESTED

W. J. Rea Hits Reckless Pace and Inflicted Injury Last Saturday.

W. J. Rea, a guest at a valley resort, ran amuck with a big Cadillac car near town Saturday afternoon and as a result three different people had narrow escapes from being run down or injured at his hands. He backed his car into one driven by H. Eiseys, collector for the Calif. Telephone and Light Company, struck a vehicle driven by Mrs. Guiberga Caccia, all within a few blocks. The victims of the reckless motorists appealed to the local officers to apprehend the man with the result that Rea was taken into custody.

The following day he was quite repentant of his meteoric career along our roads and compensated Caccia and others. The charge of reckless driving against him was reduced to disturbing the peace under a city ordinance which made it possible for the city to collect a $35 fine upon the Judge finding Rea guilty as charged.

Caccia who was knocked down near the Sonoma place had to go to the office of Dr. Thompson for treatment to his shoulder following his encounter with the big Cadillac. Fortunately he was not seriously injured.

GEOLOGIST SEARCHING FOR OIL AT KENWOOD.

Geologists last week were inspecting the Kenwood district for prospects of oil on the west side of the valley and land owners in that vicinity and Hope Valley are greatly interested in the results.

Film Company Asks for Data on Sonoma Valley for Moving Picture Producers

LOCAL ORGANIZATION ANSWERS INQUIRY AND WANTS PHOTO-GRAPHS TO SUPPLEMENT DESCRIPTION.

The Sonoma Business Men's Association is in receipt of a letter from the Universal Film Manufacturing Company, from its Pacific Coast studios at Universal City in this state, asking information in regard to Sonoma as a future possible locality for the filming of moving picture productions. The letter was promptly answered, and in addition, President Wm. F. Cleve of the local organization wants photographs and views of the Valley of the Moon to forward to the moving picture people. Anyone having interesting scenes in and around Sonoma may leave them with Mr. Cleve or at the Index-Tribune office.

The interesting of the moving picture companies in this locality is a splendid promotion work in which every resident of this valley should be interested. Bring in your pictures of the natural beauties and historic scenes in and about Sonoma.

Following is the letter written by Secretary Al Stein of the Business Men's Association answering questions as to our railroad service, roads, hotel accommodations, points of near-by interest, pleasure resorts, atmospheric conditions, etc.

2-7-21
Universal Film Mfg. Co., Universal City, Calif.

Dear Sir: Location Manager.

Replying to yours of the 3rd inst., could say that you will find listed in this letter the information you are seeking and we will at any time be willing to give you any other information you may desire.

SONOMA is situated on the Northwestern Pacific R. R. forty three miles from San Francisco, Calif. and thirty miles from San Rafael. It is the principal town of Sonoma "Valley of the Moon" which is also traversed by the Southern Pacific R. R. (Santa Rosa branch.) Their station is located at the town of El Verano 2 miles from Sonoma and which is connected with good highway.

Our roads connect Sonoma Valley with Napa Co., on one side, Santa Rosa on the west, and Maria Co. on the South. The Black Point Cutoff State Highway connects us with the Sacramento Valley. The roads winding through the valley along the foothills amid beautiful natural scenery afford to lovers of nature every opportunity to revel at the beauties on every side. Our hills, streams, rustic bridges, vineyards, orchards and moss hung oaks, enthrall all comers.

It is the home of the late Jack London whose book, "The Valley of the Moon," brought us fame. The natural beauties of the valley are everywhere apparent all the way to Santa Rosa through Kenwood and the Los Guillicos Valley. It is very beautiful. In and around Sonoma the Spanish influence is still apparent. Adobe and historic buildings including the old Mission San Francisco de Solano lend a charm. The hills rise right above the town, making a beautiful background in spring and fall.

Hotel accommodations are most excellent, adequate and reasonable. Within a radius of four miles there are countless hotels and resorts with excellent table and bathing facilities. Santa Rosa is the county seat and the other cities of importance are Healdsburg, Petaluma, Cloverdale and Sebastopol.

Our pleasure resorts and Springs are known the world over among them are Boyes Springs, Fetters Springs, Agua Caliente Springs and many others too numerous to mention.

Spring, summer and autumn is delightful. Fogs are exceptional. Our climate is one of our greatest assets warm days, but not excessive as in the interior valleys and our nights are always cool.

We might add that the Bessie Love Company filmed "The Middleman" here last spring and that the manager, Mr. De Grasse and the director of that company, Ida Parks were delighted with the natural beauties of the scenery in the valley and highly praised our hotel accommodations.

We will upon request send you photographs of the scenery in the Valley of Sonoma.

Trusting this will give you the information you are seeking, I am, Very truly yours,

AL. STEIN.

FARMERS TO TAKE ADVAN- TAGE OF WATER SUPPLY

Sign Up For Water Which Dunham
Merger Will Make Available
Through Big Storage Supply.

The possibility of securing an unlimited and dependable water supply for irrigation purposes is keenly interesting the Sonoma Valley farmer and as a result Mr. Gordon Clark representing the Sonoma Valley Water and Irrigation Company, has found ready response in getting signatures from prospective customers of the new water system. The merger of the Emparan system, that at Sonoma Vista and the combining of all supplies in the hills from Lemnos and Carriger creeks into a big reservoir on the property of the Sonoma Valley Water Company above El Verano is to be the nucleus of the proposed irrigation system which is to transform Sonoma valley acreage into fertile and productive fields where intensive agriculture will double present yield. Many poultrymen of the El Verano section who have suffered loss and inconvenience from the failure of the water supply there in the past, are looking forward to a new era with the consummation of the proposed merger. $8500 PROPERTY IN THE CAMP- BELL ESTATE.

James F. Tate filed a petition Monday for the probate of the will of the late Sarah E. Campbell, who died in Berkeley leaving realty in this county valued at $4500 and personal property valued at $1000.

The will, dated January 15th, 1921 was witnessed by R. F. Peckham and E. W. Dittmer, both of San Francisco and named the petitioner and Anna Carson as executors, and left bequests for William O'Brien, a brother, residence unknown; Anne Fitzpatrick, sister, South Africa; James Campbell, Mamie Tate, and Louis McElroy all of Sonoma; Margaret Campbell, Berkeley, and Anna Carlson of San Francisco.

The bulk of the estate is said to go to Margaret Campbell and Anna Carlson. Sonoma friends were bequeathed jewelry and Jas. Campbell, former husband of deceased, was left the nominal sum of one dollar. Margaret Campbell, chief beneficiary is a niece of Mr. Campbell.

J. M. Merryman who bought the Gilmaker ranch in the hills north of town has sold it to J. T. Rogers.

J. M. BURKE, FORMER RESIDENT, PASSED AWAY

Had Been Prominent Contractor in Sonoma and Reared Splendid Family Here.

J. M. Burke who resided in Sonoma for many years and was a leading contractor and builder, died at his home in San Francisco this week where he had been residing since leaving here. He is survived by his widow and family of grown children, all of whom are prominent in business and educational circles.

Mr. Burke was a man of keen business ability and a fine workman. He built many of Sonoma's residences and business houses and also erected St. Francis Catholic Church. Some years ago he was badly injured by a heavy counter falling upon him and since then had been in weakened health. He was 76 years of age.

With his good wife and help mate, he reared a family of eight children and lived to see them all a great credit to the splendid home influence training and education bestowed on them. His sons achieved a fine place in business circles, two of his daughters became prominent educators and the others a credit to their parents in every way. The children are John M. Burke, Thos. R. Burke, James F. Burke, Frank M. Burke and an unmarried daughter, Nan. Besides there are Mrs. May Garside wife of the well known theatrical man, Mrs. Margaret Campbell, wife of a San Bernardino lawyer and ex-legislator and Mrs. Leona Smith, wife of a prominent commission man.

The funeral took place from the late residence of deceased on Guerrero street, San Francisco, thence to St. Peter's church where a solemn high mass was celebrated. Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery.

Many old friends of the family in Sonoma Valley sent messages of condolence and a number attended the last sad rites.

REPORT THAT N. W. P. MAY BE ELECTRIC LINE

Rumored Extension of Suburban
Service Beyond San Rafael Revives
Talk of Circuiting Sonoma Valley.

Persistent rumors are afloat that the Northwestern Pacific is contemplating the extension of its suburban service beyond San Rafael up into Sonoma County. Hourly suburban trains to be operated by electricity are said to be in prospect to speed up business and meet the competition of auto busses.

The rumors here revives the report which was current just prior to the taking over of the roads by the government that the Northwestern was figuring on bringing its electric line up through Sonoma Valley and Glen Ellen to Santa Rosa and down to San Rafael via Petaluma and Novato. The new suburban territory with electric train service would become very popular and the mineral springs and resorts of Sonoma Valley would be the mecca of big crowds. Commuters would be attracted to our fertile farming acreage also and great possibilities are evident once the company put its electric schedule into effect.

The building of the substantial new steel bascule bridge over the creek at Wingo now nearly completed and the work being done on the bridge at Black Point augurs well for developments up this way.

IT'S A SAD STORY, MATES

The fact that the Sonoma Index Tribune is read by three or four times as many people as other papers hereabouts, seems to be worrying the "dry" editor to a frazzle. Between that fact and W. L. Murphy going to Washington, we will really drive the reckless bicyclist to drink!

Sonoma, California, March 12, 1921

When Jack Lawler, the poultrymen's representative, got back from Washington, D. C., and told of the splendid fight made by Congressman Lea on the cold storage measure, and at every turn where his constituents were affected, even the most acutely partisan newspapers in the county had to acknowledge that Lea, sent to Congress by both Republicans and Democrats, was true to his promise and merited the greatest praise on his performances. Whenever legislation menaces the interests of California farmers, Congressman Lea is off actively on the job.

The message of President Harding on inauguration day was a splendid conservative document not filled too full with promises and thereby promising all the more of what is within the power of our national executive to encourage and foster. His cabinet was chosen in all wisdom and meets with national wide approval. His new congress has some exceptional material. We of California are proud, indeed, to see Senator Samuel M. Shortridge take his place in the halls of congress. Such men as Senator Shortridge will strengthen the hands of our new president and bring honor to the state and prestige to America. The toga well becomes him.

Tree planting along their highways is interesting many sections of our state, but Sonoma, with its highways still to get, yawns and believes that saving the acorns will be about all for her to do for awhile. We'd suggest bombarding the highway commission with acorns, or brickbats, if they don't give the Valley of the Moon the highway money voted it this spring.

Caruso and his wonderful voice might have been only a memory if he had succumbed to his illness recently, were it not for the marvelous invention, the records, which will preserve his art to music lovers for all time. Thus science can triumph over death itself, and art owes much to science.

KEEP THE PAYROLLS GOING

We urge upon all employers the importance of keeping their employees on the payroll. If you can't give them steady work, give them as much as you can. It is better to score a loss than to allow disorganization of forces, the bread line, and the suffering that goes with it. Farmers and manufacturers are responding patriotically to the law of supply and demand, and labor must do the same thing in due course of time.

We are drifting toward a new level, which, no doubt, will be a little higher than the old normal, but there is no occasion for alarm. Our country is the richest on earth and there are no really bad financial situations to combat, beyond the tax situation, which must be remedied in both states and nation.—Pacific Coast Manufacturer.

PUT CRIMP IN THE REFORMERS

"Is it not time to put a crimp in the pestilent activities of our pseudo-reformers and refer them and their measures to the alienist and the asylum? Our backs are to the wall. We have had a plenty. Good liquor is banned, tobacco is to be tabooed, nature curses us with catarrh and the law forbids us to spit, we are reformed, uplifted and propagandized to death. Now, the shoe industry is attacked under false pretences, the underpinning of the sex is threatened and the feminine scenery of Tremont street is menaced. We have all the reform we can stand and more than we can digest."

Boston is rearing up at the reformers. When the bill to legislate on the high heels worn by women came up before the Massachusetts legislative committee on public health, Joseph Smith of that city whacked reform hard. Among some of the things he said were the following, his speech being printed in full in the "Shoe Retailer," a trade paper:

"It used to be said that Brazil was the country the Nuts came from; and after watching Boston for a series of years, I am persuaded that this State House is the place they come to year in and year out. The legislative calendar is congested with silly bills by Silly Billies; and there appears to be a mania in America for meddling with the people's business, an incessant badgering of the peaceful citizen, a constant effort to make him more bedevilled and bug-house. The busybody having no business of his own butts into the business of everybody else."

In Utah, you can have all the wives and dope you crave, but smoke cigarettes at your peril. Down South you must change your residence to change your breath. Up in New Hampshire they want to lengthen bed sheets and skirts and shorten the hours of labor. Every State has a Sneak and Smell Society, which is designed to measure our morals and meter our breaths; we save daylight and waste time; we penalize pleasure and condemn comfort; we are held down by law and held up by the Saints, and the Nuts are envious to reform and regulate what man eats and wears;—50,000 new laws are added to our codes every year; no man knows whether he is a criminal or a law-abiding citizen; some want to revive the blue laws, others wish to enact black-and-blue laws; ignorance of human nature is no bar to legislation and ignorance of legislation is no bar to punishment, and so we are all between the Devil and the deep sea.

"We are to have an army of saints and scientists to measure the heels and manipulate the ankles of the ladies on our streets, but will they stop there in their passion for uplifting? The idea that high heels are injurious to feet and ruinous to health is based apparently on the same brand of medical misinformation and anatomical ignorance which imagines that pianos are tuned by polishing piano legs and thirst is cured by abolishing crink."

WINE GRAPE DIET FOR TURKEYS EXPENSIVE

In these days of big prices for wine grapes, it is a serious matter if your turkeys wander from home into the vineyard of a neighbor and start to gobble up wine grapes for breakfast, at least that was the opinion of the Court when the case of Lucine Hendley of Glen Ellen vs. Katherine Pedroncelli was heard and the Judge found judgment for the plaintiff in the amount of $95 plus costs.

Mrs. Hendley sued Mrs. Pedroncelli alleging that her 60 turkeys invaded a vineyard and did $115 worth of damage. Judge Just of Glen Ellen called Judge Lester Small to try the case and after hearing the evidence Small gave judgment for the plaintiff as above stated. C. C. Cowgill appeared for Mrs. Hendley and Wallace Ware for the defendant.

Milk fed chickens and turkeys are once highly regarded but the latest demand of connoisseurs is said to be turkeys stuffed with wine grapes or with a stuffing of bread soaked in the juice of wine grapes.

If turkeys are precocious enough to fill up on Zinfadels so much the better provided you can get about $1.50 per pound for them. Judge Just and Small have not yet decided what such turkeys are worth but Judge Small in assessing $95 against 60 turkeys evidently believed that each turkey enjoyed about a dollar and a half breakfast.

The Ring family who sold their fine orchard "Arrowhead", departed for Oakland this week. They will spend sometime in travel in Southern California before settling down again.

The new owners of Arrowhead, the Vestal family, have arrived and taken possession. Their are several members of the new household and they will be a splendid addition to the prominent ranchers of the Valley of the Moon. The Vestals came here from the northern part of Sonoma County.

R. R. EMPARAN SUCCEEDS JACK MURRAY AS DEPUTY ASSESSOR HERE.

Raoul Empanan has been appointed the new deputy Assessor for Sonoma Valley, succeeding Jack Murray who was appointed two years ago by County Assessor Hoke Smith at the resignation of Ed. Johannsen.

There have been rumors for some time past that there would be a change made and the naming of Empanan in place of Murray was not altogether a surprise.

The appointment of Mr. Empanan is generally satisfactory and he promises to give just and unbiased service in the valuating of properties in the Sonoma Valley. Assessing will begin this week and continue through to July the first.

Paul Robin and little daughter, Florence, went to San Francisco last Sunday to visit Mrs. Robin who underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils. Mrs. Robin has been suffering from an injury to her eye following the imbedding of a particle of steel in the delicate organ. She has been under the care of specialists for months and when the other eye began to show signs of becoming affected, the doctor decided on the removal of her tonsils. The many friends of the family sincerely sympathize with Mrs. Robin in all that she has been through and hope for her ultimate and complete recovery.

E. Riboni, the cement contractor is laying a concrete floor in the old Buena Vista Castle which is to be utilized for the administration building of the new state institution for delinquent women.

E. J. Harris the orchardist and real estate man has returned from a two week's visit to Fresno where he found everything exceedingly prosperous.

Z. Lane who spent the winter on his ranch here, the former Engler place, is to return North where he has big timber interests.

Mrs. Jessie Carson was up at Boyes the past week from S. F. and confided to friends that her attractive daughter, Lucile, has lost her heart to a prominent San Francisco gentleman to whom she is engaged.

PROMINENT YOUNG ORCHARDIST ILL

Harry Coops, one of the prominent young orchardists of Sonoma Valley, has been critically ill at his home on the Napa road and under the care of Dr. E. Z. Hennessey. Mrs. Coops, who was formerly Dorothy Dobbie, has been constantly in attendance and Mrs. J. Coops was summoned home from the south to help care for her son.

CLEAR LAKE CATFISH INDUSTRY QUITE LARGE.

LAKEPORT, March 7th.—A evidence of the importance of the cat fish industry on Clear Lake, Fred Coles reports that his shipments for February to A. Paladini amounted to 15,959 pounds of dressed "cats." This is but little short of eight tons. There are 16 shippers now in the business. At least 12 1-2 cents net, the month's fishing brought in nearly $2000.

The L. Mouyer place at El Verano has been sold to A. Boani of San Francisco who has been coming here many seasons as a summer visitor.

SONOMA'S LEADING GROCER AND GENERAL MERCHANT

FRUIT AND GRAPE OUTLOOK AS SEEN BY PROMINENT GROWER.

Will Clements, of the California Cooperative Canneries, was in town this week and after looking into the various phases of the fruit business and present conditions believes that California fruit growers face a critical period of readjustment before the industry will again become normal. Despite a cut of about 40 per cent. in canned fruits, there are several million sold and unsold cases of surplus which cannot be turned into money and may not be before California's new crop is harvested.

From present indications Mr. Clements figures that this year will bring about $40. per ton and peaches about $30. Standard and water pack may bring even less. Last season peaches sold as high as $90, but many of our pear growers have not yet been paid in full owing to the slump in the canning industry.

The prune situation is looking brighter and it is believed that all last year's crop will be disposed of within a few months. That many of these prunes are going into illicit stills to become liquor is well known. It is estimated that a ton of prunes will make 10 gallons of brandy.

When asked concerning the disposition of prunes for home-made liquor, Mr. Clements said it was quite likely as many raisins and cherries were being utilized in this way, and that the demand had been a boon to growers with surplus crops on their hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robertson and little daughter came up over the last week end to visit relatives. Mrs. Robertson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Middleton Glazier of Santa Barbara. Her husband is in the commissary department of the U. S. S. Minneapolis at present they are living at Vallejo.

Mrs. Marcel Charlat of Blue Bird Farm, El Verano, had as her week end guest, Mrs. G. W. Griffith of San Francisco.

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society will meet in the Church parlors of the Methodist Church on Thursday afternoon, March 17th. A good attendance is desired.

RURAL LIFE DID NOT PROVE AS QUIET AS EXPECTED.

George Long who longed for the country because of the restful quiet he believed went with country life and came up to peaceful Vineburg from the city where he is employed in a bank has changed his mind somewhat on the quietude of the country since his encounter with a farmer-neighbor, L. H. Klapperich who had him arrested last Saturday. Long owns the old Bramit ranch formerly leased to Mr. Klapperich and when Klapperich's lease expired he took over his property and his tenant moved to an adjoining place. During his vacation from the bank, Mr. Long decided to hie him forth to peaceful Vineburg and his country acreage and once domiciled there he took to rural duties as a duck to water. While working about his barn yard one day he declares he noticed his ex-tenant's team drive up and proceed to haul away some manure. Knowing fertilizer to be a valuable commodity to any farmer, he protested and warned Klapperich's man in audible tones to keep off his premises. Klapperich, in the adjoining field it is alleged, took exceptions to this remark and made a rush toward the fence upon whose tother side was Long. The city man stood his ground so he himself says, but Klapperich avers he did more—exhibited a deadly weapon (a revolver) in a threatening and rash manner whereupon he called an officer and had him arrested. Long maintains that the steel he brandished was neither knife or gun but furthermore he did not brandish it. He will take a day off from his duties in San Francisco as assistant cashier of the Merchants National Bank to explain his predicament to Judge Small here next week.

A number of witnesses have been subpoenaed. Mechanics who installed the First National Bank's burglar alarm system here last week declared the doors of the vault were of the finest and hardest steel encountered for many a day. It turned the drill and almost defied it. Old fashioned bank robbers would have been out of luck but with the modern acetylene torch methods they have to be combatted with mere scientific arrangements including such devices as the electric alarm with its tell tale gong.

PIE SALE FOR EUROPEAN RELIEF FUND GREAT SUCCESS

Pie! was the watchword at the Sonoma Grammar school last Friday where pies of every delicious variety were brought and sold for the benefit of Europe's starving little ones. The school children donated the pies and they were just like mothers can make. There were pumpkin pies and nine pies and apple pies and cream pies and fruit pies of all descriptions including wonderful fluffy lemon pies and oh! yes custard pies. When Principal Prestwood gave his original talk on the great good in which the children could aid by bringing their pies for the pie sale and in his talk mentioned the kind of pies they would probably have, he unintentionally omitted to name the favorite pie of one bright chap who promptly rose up and went on record for Pumpkin pie! So, all the pies in piedom were represented and were exhibited under the trees and offered for sale to the children and their friends. The pies sold like hot cakes by the slice and netted $40.00 for the good cause.

The teachers and European relief committee were much pleased with the splendid result of the pie sale.

EXPECTED BACK FROM EAST.

W. L. Murphy is expected home from the East today. He had a splendid trip, enjoying all the sights in and about Washington, listening to fine debates in Congress, spending many interesting hours in the Congressional Library and visiting the Smithsonian Institute and other places of interest. Enroute home following the inauguration ceremonies he stopped off at Belvedere, Illinois, to visit relatives and scenes of his youth, including the office of the Boone county "Banner" where he learned the printing trade and was a printer's "devil" some 30 years ago.

A party of Sonoma school teachers are planning a trip to Alaska for their summer vacation.

Ray Bill has been quite ill for some time past at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bill, east of town.

DEATH OF BELOVED SON

Abramo Minelli, the beloved eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cesaro Minelli, died at his home on Napa street Saturday, following an attack of spinal meningitis. He is mourned by his parents, a brother, Louis, and two uncles, one of whom is John Decanini the local hotel man.

The funeral took place Sunday from St. Francis Church and many pretty flowers covered the casket as it was borne to its last resting place in the Catholic Cemetery.

BERNARD FREED OF CHARGE OF ATTACK.

Charges of attack with the intent to do great bodily harm upon the person of Ellis Riedley made against J. L. Bernard were dismissed for lack of proper evidence Friday in the justice court in Santa Rosa by Judge Marvin T. Vaughan.

Judge Vaughan stated that while the testimony showed that Bernard had perhaps been guilty of disturbing the peace, it did not show that he had made threats to do injury to the complainant.

Bernard will be tried on a disturbance charge by Justice Small in Sonoma.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan, with electric self-starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires front and rear, for every day in the year has no equal as a family car. Just as popular on the farm as it is in the city. In fact, it fits the family demands in every vocation of life. Large, roomy seats, finely upholstered, plate glass windows make it an open car in pleasant weather, while in rainy and inclement weather it becomes a closed car, dust-proof and rain-proof. It is not only comfortable, but really cozy, and above all, economical in operation and maintenance, and has all the Ford merits of strength and durability.

HE KNOWS The Man Who Receives

Mr. Grower: Read—Realize—Act

Order Now—Insist On "CARO" FRUIT WRAPPERS

American Sales Agencies Co., San Francisco, Calif.

Read these letters—We have many

John E. Schintz, Wholesale Commission Merchant, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "In my opinion this wrapper 'Caro' should be adopted as soon as possible by all interested in the fruit and produce industry."

Robt. T. Cochran & Co., Commission Merchants of New York City, say: "You certainly may have our endorsement of 'Caro' fruit wrappers, not alone on the merit of the wrappers which improve the appearance of the pack in a wonderful degree, but also on the efforts you people are making to encourage the best endeavors of the particular grower."

"In our judgment substantial returns will follow as general recognition is obtained."

Fox & Golding, Carol Distributors, Fruits and Vegetables, Chicago, Ill., say: "Replying to your inquiry as to the fruit arriving packed with different kinds of paper, wish to state the 'Caro' chemically treated fruit wrappers are the best we have seen."

"Hope the growers of the Pacific Coast will use 'Caro' instead of the heavy plain paper."

A. Levy & J. Zentner Co., Fruit and Produce, Chicago, Distributors and Jobbers of San Francisco, Calif., say: "We used 'Caro' wrappers in our repacking room for several years and as we know it makes a much more attractive package than the ordinary Wrapper, carries the fruit better and aids in the sale."

R. Daetwyler & Company of Philadelphia, Pa., Carol Distributors of Fruit and Produce, Representing many large Growers and Associations from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast, say: "The better appearance of fruit in your wrappers is of itself a benefit, assuring sale at higher prices. The positive better keeping and carrying quality of fruit wrapped in 'Caro' fruit wrappers should induce every grower, and packer to use 'Caro' fruit wrappers exclusively."

R. F. Mayer, Sales Agent, Fruit and Produce, Member Western Fruit Jobbers Assn., New Orleans, La., says: "'Caro' wrapped fruit is arriving in splendid condition, and owing to the transparency and nature of the wrapper, the fruit is shown off to the best advantage. As soon as the merits of 'Caro' have become generally recognized, increased returns to the growers will follow."
